*Nathan Rivera
Operations Manager
Americo's PromoMatting
Division*

With over 20 years of management experience, Nathan is the Operations Manager for Americo's Matting Division. Mr. Rivera manages all facets of the manufacturing process, which includes monitoring and continually improving standards of performance and quality within the operation.

In his current role, Mr. Rivera is responsible for ensuring that capacity and capability are regularly planned. He also oversees the company's compliance to all environmental health & safety goals and objectives. Nathan's strengths include driving operational improvements and efficiencies, while ensuring tight controls on operational costs.

Mr. Rivera works with his team collaboratively in providing support to Marketing, Sales, and all aspects of Production. Mentoring employees at all levels, Nathan is particularly skilled in developing new talent to reach their full potential.

Before joining Americo in 2012, Nathan worked for organizations in the Composite Industry as Plant Manager and COO, including heading the transformation of small business startups, and global corporations like LG. Throughout Mr. Rivera's career, he has participated in acquisitions, short and long-term strategic planning and has been responsible for the day to day operations, including revenue and sales growth, of multiple corporations.
